

FINANCIAL ANALYST
INFLITE ENGINEERING SERVICES
STANSTED
ESSEX

Inflite Engineering have a great opportunity for an experienced Financial Analyst based in Stansted, Essex.

Inflite Engineering Services Ltd are one of the UK's larger and most accomplished manufacturers of machined and fabricated detailed parts from most types of metals, hard and soft.

Job Purpose: Responsible for developing and supporting the cost accounting systems and processes, preparing, evaluating, and analysing product costing's and providing assistance to the Finance Manager and Accounts Departments as required.

Main Responsibilities:

- Costing of materials purchased
- Reconcile the monthly movement held within stock system
- Monthly monitoring of bills of material and inventory movements
- Cost Analysis of manufacturing process
- Analysis of profit margin and involvement in the setting of prices
- Analysing organisational data and assessing rates of labour
- Reviewing hourly rates achieved against expectations
- Implementing new cost saving efficiencies and maximising profitability
- Liaise with production team to discuss actual manufacturing performance and accuracy of data
- Preparing monthly and quarterly reports for senior management
- Ad hoc analysis/projects as requested
- Assist with the preparation of financial reports and statements
- Prepare general ledger postings and statements
- Management of Cashbooks Including Monthly Reconciliation and journal posting
- Provide assistance to the Accounts Manager when required
- Provide assistance to the Accounts department as and when required
- Perform any other duties directed by the Company such as data collection, entry and analysis
- Provide assistance during the companies' implementation of a new ERP system

Skills and Experience Required:

The ideal candidate will have experience of the manufacturing industry, possess an analytical mind, be good with people, calm under pressure and be able to handle difficult situations with tact and diplomacy.

- Qualified or part qualified AAT
- Previous accounting experience is essential
- Excellent verbal and written communication
- Good organisational skills and time management
- IT skills
- Driving licence required